

22. SUPERHEROES

Welcome song

K: Welcome to our fun learning radio broadcast with Kiki and Mr. Suits!
This program was created in collaboration with Azyzah Educational and Interactive Theatre.

S: Nice to meet you friends!

K: Our question today is from Lily, who is 10 years old from Regina, Canada.

S: Hi, Kiki and Mr. Suits, could you tell us about superheroes?

K: Yes! Ready to learn about superheroes?

S: Let's go!

Theme

S: Swish... Look Kiki, up in the sky! Is it a plane? Is it a bird? Is it a spaceship? No, it's Superman!

K: Look at him fly! I love Superman, he's always kind and saves people from bad guys in the city of Metropolis.

S: Yes, he does it with style! In an awesome blue, red, and yellow costume.

K: And a cape, don't forget the red cape! - Wonder woman... Her costume has the same colours as Superman's, she's super strong and saves the world from wars.

S: How cool is that?! Ho, ho, ho! Spiderman, Spiderman, does whatever a spider can! Look out, here comes the spider man!

K: Haha, and he has the same colors too. Red and blue!

S: Do you think all superheroes wear the same colours?

K: No. There are thousands of superheroes from all over the world and they dress in all the colours of the rainbow.

S: Well... Batman only wears black.

K: And he drives the super cool Batmobile! Others have X-ray vision, super-speed or super-strength...

S: And they always use their superpowers to help people. – Oh, I wish I had superpowers, Kiki.

K: Well, guess what, Mr. Suits. We all have superhero powers.

S: Really? I mean, I can't fly or change color or even lift something heavier than a chair. Can you?

K: Ha ha ha. No, of course not, but we help our listeners learn.

S: Uh? Yeah. So being a superhero means doing good things for others?

K: Now you got it! And our friends can be superheroes, too.

S: Yes, every time they help someone. Wow!

S+K: We are all superheroes! Yoo-hoo!

Story

S: Woo hoo! It's story time...

K: Today's story is about the superhero in every kid.

One day when a boy named Jack was walking to school, he saw all sorts of garbage around him.

(S) JACK: There's so much garbage everywhere. You can't even see the grass.

K: At school he told his friend Julie and she agreed.

(K) JULIE: Yes, I thought the same thing this morning. There are candy wrappers everywhere.

(S) JACK: And pop cans, gum, empty bags, and water bottles. It's horrible.

K: Their friend Kyle walked up to them.

(S) KYLE: Hi Julie and Jack, did you notice the school is like a pool of garbage? Gross, right?

K: Along came Isabelle, Melanie and Peter, all saying the same thing. There was a minute of silence. Which is pretty long. - Suddenly, they started laughing and said together...

(S+K) ALL: Hahaha! Let's clean it up!

K: As a team they cleaned up the entire school grounds in just 10 minutes. Their teachers watched them from the windows the whole time. They were so amazed that they all started to clap their hands.

(S) TEACHER: Bravo! Great job everyone! You are our superheroes.

K: Since that day, Jack's school has never had to do a cleaning day again.

THE END
